James White Elkins

1925-2009

James White Elkins was born on January 19, 1925 to Robert Lee Elkins and Lucy Pruitt Elkins in Bell Buckle, Tennessee. He has been a life long resident of Bell Buckle and member of the Bell Buckle United Methodist Church. He attended Bell Buckle Elementary School and graduated from Bell Buckle High School in 1943.

James entered the U.S. Army in October of 1943 and was assigned to the 276th Combat Engineers Battalion. He fought in the Battle of the Bulge and helped push Hitler's army out of Belgium and back to the Rhine River. On March 17, 1945, James was injured while repairing the Ludendorff Bridge in Remagen, Germany. The bridge collapsed after repeated attempts by the German troops to destroy it. James was awarded numerous medals and awards, including the Purple Heart, an ETO Ribbon with three battle stars, and the Presidential Unit Citation.

When James returned to Bell Buckle in 1946, he reunited with his high school sweetheart, Dorothy Powell, and they were married on August 29, 1946. In 1948, James opened the Elkins Garage, which he operated for 25 years. In 1950, he became Bell Buckle's first Fire Chief, a position he held until 1992. James continued to support the Bell Buckle Fire Department after his retirement, and the new fire hall was named for, and dedicated to, him on October 8, 2006.

James was an active Mason and member of the Al Menah Shrine Temple. He was proud of the work he participated in as a shiner.

James is survived by his devoted wife of 62 years, Dorothy Powell Elkins, and son, Robert "Bobby" Elkins. He was a loving husband and father, a dear friend to many, and a brave veteran. James truly touched many lives and will be missed and remembered by many.

Visitation will be Wednesday, May 6, 2009, 5:00-9:00 PM, at Bell Buckle United Methodist Church. The funeral service will be Thursday, May 7, 2009, at 11:00 AM at Bell Buckle United Methodist Church, and a graveside service will follow at Hazel Cemetery in Bell Buckle, TN. Officiants will be the Reverends Elizabeth "Beth" Ezell, Lawrence E. "Buddy" Royston, and John V. "Jack" Carney.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to the Bell Buckle United Methodist Church or the Bell Buckle Fire Department.

Wanda Colcord Obituary

Wanda Pearson Colcord was born on July 26, 1918, in Flat Creek, Tennessee. She passed away peacefully at age 90 on April 29, 2009 at Comfort Care Homes in Wichita, Kansas. Her father was the late William Bibb Pearson and her mother was the late Willie Lee Parker. She is survived by her sister, Mary Laneal Turpin, and her two sons, Marc Colcord of Wichita, Kansas, and Ray Colcord of Los Angeles, California.

She was Salutatorian of her class at Shelbyville Central High School, graduating in 1937, and was voted Outstanding Athlete of the School. Wanda served in the Women’s Army Corp during WWII. First working as an army recruiter, she served on active duty from September 1943 to December 1945 in the South Pacific, retiring as a captain. In charge of 600 WAC's, she participated in the campaigns for New Guinea, Luzon, and the South Philippines Liberation. She received the American Theater Ribbon, 3 Overseas Service Bars, and the A-P Theater Ribbon with 3 Bronze Battle Stars. She has a brick dedicated to her in the Veterans Memorial Plaza next to the Bedford County Courthouse. In May, 1945 in the Philippines, she married Captain Richard W. Fuller. They were divorced soon after the war ended. She married Ray Colcord Jr. on September 6, 1949, in New York City, where they both worked for Pan American Airlines. They had two sons, Ray and Marc, and lived primarily in Princeton, New Jersey. Wanda and Ray Jr. were divorced on June 20, 1966. Ray Colcord Jr. died in New York City on July 27, 1971, of heart failure after open-heart surgery.

Wanda was an early supporter of women's rights, and worked for the Princeton chapter of the National Organization for Women. She also worked as a real estate broker, establishing Colcord Real Estate in Princeton. Wanda moved back to Shelbyville, her home town, in 1975 and bought a house on Franklin Street, only a few blocks from the high school she graduated from in 1936. After a bout with pneumonia and atrial fibrillation in 2005 she moved into the Carriage House assisted living facility. After being diagnosed with Alzheimer's disease in 2007, she moved into the Heart Remembers facility at Carriage House, and in 2008 to Comfort Care Homes in Wichita, Kansas, where Marc lives. She was a strong and unique person, unflagging in her loyalty to her family, a champion of the rights of the underrepresented, and fearless in her opinions. She will be missed.

Actor T. Scott Cunningham,
founding member of Drama Dept.
and The Vineyard Community of Artists, dies at age 47
(December 15, 1961-June 20, 2009)

Actor T. Scott Cunningham, a founding member of Drama Dept. and The Vineyard Community of Artists, died at NYU Medical Center in New York City on Saturday, June 20 from complications due to pneumonia and Acute Respiratory Distress Syndrome, according to Sam Rudy, a spokesperson for The Vineyard Theatre. Mr. Cunningham was 47 years old.

T. Scott Cunningham last appeared this past April at the Philadelphia Theatre Company in Edward Albee's "At Home at the Zoo." On Broadway, he was in "Love! Valour! Compassion!" and revivals of "Design for Living" and "Tartuffe." His off-Broadway credits include "As Bees in Honey Drown" and "Music from a Sparkling Planet," both by Douglas Carter Beane (Drama Dept.); "Wintertime" and "The Dear Boy" (2nd Stage); and "New England" (Manhattan Theatre Club). He originated roles in three plays by Nicky Silver: "Pterodactyls" and "The Eros Trilogy" at The Vineyard Theatre and "Fit to be Tied" at Playwright's Horizons.

Mr. Cunningham was recently in the National Tour of "Twelve Angry Men" and the Las Vegas production of "Mamma Mia!" and was also in the west coast tour of "Take Me Out." He is very proud to have been in the Kennedy Center's production of "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof" with George Grizzard. His work in regional theatre includes South Coast Rep, Seattle Rep, Old Globe (Richard Greenberg's "The Violet Hour"), Long Wharf, McCarter, Alliance, Williamstown, NY Stage & Film, Portland Stage Co., Utah Shakespeare (title role in "Hamlet"), and many others.

His film and television credits include Serendipity, The Out of Towners, Our Very Own, People I Know and The Boys of Sunset Ridge, "Law and Order," "Law and Order: Criminal Intent," "Maximum Bob," "Cybill," and "Central Park West."

In a statement, playwright Nicky Silver said: "T. Scott Cunningham was a brilliant actor, an inspiration, and a dear, dear friend. We were very close for the last 17 years. I will miss him every day.

Survived by his partner of fourteen years, Harry Bouvy of New York City; parents Judy and Tim Cunningham, brother Kevin, sister-in-law Jena, niece Morgan, nephews Mason and Kade; special aunt, Caroline Riddle, all of Shelbyville, Tennessee; countless friends and colleagues in theatre, film and television.
