Ojai, CA

Marcia Mae Tenpenny

Marcia entered into the Arms of the Lord, with the comfort and loving support of her family, on March 29, 2010, after a short battle with cancer. Marcia was preceded in death by her beloved husband Spike Tenpenny.

Known throughout Ojai and Ventura County in her life's calling as a full-time Mother, Grandmother, and Great Grandmother to her six children, two foster children, twelve grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Marcia was born March 13, 1933, a birth date she shares with her first-born granddaughter Rachel, in Valley City, North Dakota, and grew up in Iowa Falls, Iowa. After high school Marcia attended the University of Northern Iowa. Upon completing a semester of college Marcia moved to southern California. Encouraged by family friends, Marcia joined the Navy as a WAVE, with her stunning natural beauty; Marcia wore her uniform proudly and was very active in the various roles of her military service.

While stationed at the Naval Air Station in Jacksonville, Florida, Marcia caught the eye of a young, handsome sailor by the name of Dorris Ray Tenpenny "Spike" of Wartrace Tennessee, and not long after they were married. Both Spike and Marcia were honorably discharged from the Navy in 1955 and were married for 53 years.

Marcia and Spike headed west to southern California setting roots in Torrance. While raising their six children in Torrance, they stumbled upon the beautiful Ojai Valley. After many weekend visits, with all six children in tow, they made the permanent move to Ojai in 1969.

Marcia was a full-time mother, feeling blessed in being able to raise her family in the beauty and rural splendor of the Topa Topa Mountains and the Ojai Valley. She quickly came to be known as a true "Rice Roader Mom" to any and all the many friends who frequented the Tenpenny house. If you were hungry or just needed a place to hang out, "Momma T" accommodated all and rejoiced in her full nest.

As her family grew, Marcia was a regular fixture at all the various sporting events her children participated in. She was known for her zealous cheering of her children, and their many friends that participated with them. The zeal for cheering carried into the next generation as Marcia encouraged and attended the many sporting events of all her grandchildren.

Marcia's greatest gift was that of being a mother. For many years Marcia used her nurturing ways, caring for premature infants, providing the loving embrace and the important human contact needed by these babies. Marcia's beautiful singing voice graced the church choir for many years. Her voice also provided an even deeper gift, as she used it to soothe and comfort the little preemies she so lovingly cared for.

Another of her many gifts was her pen and letter writing. Every Christmas card, letter or note one received from Marcia was hand-written displaying her beautiful long hand, keeping everyone connected. Truly a lost art that Marcia was known for and a treasure to keep.

Marcia is preceded in death by her identical twin great-granddaughters Aubrey and Ellie Crawford.

Marcia is survived by her six children: Tom and Leigh Tenpenny of Paso Robles; Stan and Clara Tenpenny and David Tenpenny all of Ojai; Rachel and Bart Mathews of Ventura; Becky and Louie Hurak of Ojai; and Cary Tenpenny of Minden, Nevada. Grandchildren are Johnathan Tenpenny and Jessica Barbito; Rachel Crawford and husband Kirk, Rebecca McCurnin and husband Jess; Crystal Tenpenny; Beau, Jake and Travis Mathews; Cassidy and Kambria Tenpenny; Heath and Chance Hurak. Great-grandchildren are Dustin Crawford, Annella Jean and Leah Rae McCurnin. Marcia is also survived by her loving and only sister Shirley Washington along with brother-in-law John and nephews Jim, Gary and Stuart Washington.

Marcia loved her family and enjoyed the great miracle of gardening. She spent every spring preparing and then planting her garden, often sharing the harvest with friends.

Marcia enjoyed her friends in Ojai and has many lifelong friends and family in Iowa and Tennessee.

With her journey here on earth at an end, Marcia will be welcomed into the "great reunion" with those she loved and missed that have gone before her.

A service in her Memory will be held at the Ojai Community Church, April 10th, 2010, at 10:30 am, officiated by Pastor Leonard DeWitt. A reception will be held at the church.

Final internment will be in Shelbyville, Tennessee, where Marcia will be laid to rest next to her husband and sailor Dorris Ray Tenpenny "Spike".

Loretta Butler Crosslin

Ms. Loretta Crosslin, born November 21, 1922, formerly of Shelbyville, passed away peacefully on July 9, 2010 at Mercy West Hospital in Knoxville, Tennessee with her loving daughters by her side. She was a joyous Christian who devoutly followed the Shepherd's Chapel services and loved the teachings of the Lord. She was born in Lewisburg, Tennessee, one of ten children of Arthur Joseph Butler and Josephine Haskins Butler. She married Aubrey Lee Crosslin in 1944 who was the love of her life. In 1945 their daughter Jo Ann was born, and in 1950 their daughter Mary Elizabeth was born. In later years as an independent woman, Loretta learned to dance and enjoyed doing the two-step at the senior citizens centers in Manchester and Fayetteville. She was a generous and kind-hearted person, always smiled, loved to fish, and never turned down a good game of "Aggravation." Her collections of salt and pepper shakers and wind chimes are famous. Her favorite memories were of the cruise she took with her daughter Mary and granddaughters Jennifer and Lisa, as well as jetting around the country with her daughter JoAnn and son-in-law Ronnie. She loved house boating with son-in-law Sam and daughter Mary, and fishing off the dock. She took pride in her family and loved each family member fiercely. She wanted everyone to be healthy and happy. She especially worried about the welfare of her fraternal twin sister, Henrietta, and whether or not she had food or clothing. Often she sacrificed for herself to ensure Henrietta was provided for. She was truly an angel on earth and a precious soul. In addition to her parents, Ms. Crosslin is predeceased by former husband Aubrey Lee Crosslin and by five brothers and three sisters: Arthur Julius Butler, Reuben Earl Butler, Roy Butler, Elmore Butler, Lester Butler, Hazel Jones, Bovell Butler, and Mary Hasty. Survivors include: daughter Jo Ann Kirkland and husband, Ronald E. Kirkland of Knoxville, TN; daughter Mary Elizabeth Gaines and husband Samuel L. Gaines of Knoxville, TN; grandchildren: Ronald Lee Kirkland and wife Victoria of Anacortes, WA; Michael Shane Kirkland and wife, Erin of Bullard, TX; Josh Kirkland of Denver, CO; Jennifer Diane Caldwell of Knoxville, TN; Lisa Sadler Ferris and husband Michael Ferris of Myrtle Beach, SC.; Staci Gaines of Knoxville, TN; Alex Gaines of Knoxville, TN; Also survived by great-grandchildren: Grant Kirkland of Anacortes, WA; Briana Kirkland of Bullard, TX, Zachary Kirkland of Bullard, TX, and McKenzie Ferris of Myrtle Beach, SC. Loretta is at Feldhaus Memorial Chapel where the family will receive friends on Tuesday, July 13, 2010 from 4:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m. Funeral services will begin on Wednesday, July 14, 2010 at 1:30 p.m. at Feldhaus Memorial Chapel with interment to follow at Willow Mount Cemetery. He was born in Shelbyville, Tennessee on September 10, 1919, the son of J. Ivan and Alice Virginia Potts. He has one brother, Harold Hall Potts, of Huntsville, Alabama. He attended Shelbyville Central High School and graduated from the University of Kentucky in 1942 with a B.S. Degree in Commerce. While at the University of Kentucky, he served as President of Phi Delta Theta social fraternity and Captain of Scabbard and Blade, national military society. He also served as Regimental Adjutant of the Reserve Officers Training Corps. He was a member of Lamp and Cross, a senior honorary society and Vice President of the Student Union Board.

Upon graduation, he was commissioned as a 2nd Lieutenant, army air Corps. He served as a B-29 Pilot with 25th Bombardment Squadron, 40th Bombardment Group (VH) in India, China, and Tinian in the Western Pacific. He completed 35 missions and 8 "hump trips" with a total of 525 combat hours.

In September 1945, he was selected as a pilot on General Curtis LeMay's personal crew. On September 18, 1945, the crew completed the record breaking long distance flight from Japan to Washington, DC. The flight broke four Army Air Force records. He received a personal commendation from General of the Air Force, H.H. Arnold for his participation in this flight. He was separated from active duty as a captain in 1945.

His awards include two Distinguished Flying Crosses, four Air Medals, the Army Commendation Medal, two Presidential Citations, and the American Campaign Medal with one Battle Star, the Asiatic-Pacific Campaign Medal with four Battle Stars, the Victory Medal and the Philippine Liberation Medal with one Battle Star. He was awarded the Chinese Memorial Medal and Senior Pilots Wings by the Republic of China. He holds a commission as a Colonel (Retired) in the Tennessee Air National Guard.

In 1946-47, he served as a Foreign Service Officer, Department of State, in the U.S. Embassy, in Lima, Peru. He served as Chief of Staff to Ambassador Prentice Cooper.

He married Miss Katherine Bishop Dale, of Nashville, TN on October 21, 1949, in Wightman Chapel at Scarriet College. They have one son, James Ivan Potts, III, who was born in 1959. He is married to Susan Cooper, of Canton, Georgia. They have two daughters, Elizabeth Ann, born in 1990 and Sara Katherine, born in 1994.

Ivan joined his father in Stewart Potts Motors, a Ford-Mercury dealership in 1950. He became the dealer in 1955 and was President of the firm until 1980 when the dealership was sold. Stewart Potts Motors was a very successful dealership, receiving recognition and many awards from Ford Motor Company.

He became a member of First United Methodist Church in Shelbyville on August 30, 1931, and has been a member since that time. From 1956-1964, he served as Chairman of the Official Board and as a member of the World Service Commission of The Tennessee Conference.

In the political arena, he was one of the authors of the Tennessee Motor Vehicle Dealer-Manufacturing Licensing Law. As a member of the Motor Vehicle Commission under four governors, he served as Chairman of Commission in 1963 under Governor Frank G. Clement.

A member of the Shelbyville Rotary Club for almost fifty years, he served as President in 1959-60. He was honored by the club as a Paul Harris Fellow in 1979.

He was a member of the Tennessee Automotive Association, serving as a Director and Secretary-Treasurer and as Association President in 1962. In 1967, he received the Andrew Jackson Award for his contribution to the automotive industry in Tennessee. In 1968, he was awarded the National Benjamin Franklin Quality Dealership Award by the Saturday Evening Post for citizenship, community service, and contributions to the automotive industry, representing the highest standards of American Business.

Having a serious interest in community affairs, he has held numerous local positions. He served as Shelbyville's first Civil Defense Director under Mayor Eustice Williams. He served as a member of the Shelbyville Housing Authority. He served as Director and Vice President of the Shelbyville Chamber of Commerce and as Director and member of the Executive Committee of Peoples National Bank, Dominion Bank of Tennessee, and First Union Bank of Tennessee. He is a life member of the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars.

A descendent of Thomas Jackson, he became a member of Stones River Chapter, Tennessee Society, Sons of the American Revolution in 1975.

An active supporter of scouting, he served as a member of the Executive Committee, Middle Tennessee Council, BSA. He organized and served as first Chairman, Two Rivers District, BSA. He holds the Scouting Long Rifle and Silver Beaver Awards.

He is a Life Trustee of the Webb Preparatory School in Bell Buckle, Tennessee. He serves on the Executive Committee, Chairman of the Finance Committee, and as Chairman of the Parents Giving in 1976-77.

After the sale of Stewart Potts Motors, he became active in SCORE-ACE, the Service Corps of Active and Retired Executives, sponsored by the Small Business Administration. In 1982, he became state coordinator of the program, supervising the efforts of over 100 volunteer consultants to small businesses across Tennessee.

In 1987, he became Associate Director of the Small Business Development Center at Middle Tennessee State University, a position he held until his retirement in 1990.

An avid student of history, he has authored two books, "The Potts Family of Bedford County, Tennessee" and "Remembrance of War," published in 1995. His articles on World War II have appeared in Air Force Magazine, the Congressional Record, the Kentucky Alumnus, Friends Magazine of the Air Force Museum, and Alan Grigg's "Flying Flack Alley."
