

Mrs. Linda Fay Williamson Bramblett

May 10, 1939 - February 2, 2021

On Tuesday, February 2, 2021, Linda Fay Williamson Bramblett, loving mother and devoted grandmother, passed this earthly realm and is now in the arms of her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Born May 10, 1939 in Nashville, Tennessee to James Kenneth and Ena Irene (Yearwood) Williamson. Linda was raised in Shelbyville, Tennessee, graduated from Shelbyville Central High School where her love for mathematics, leadership and service began. These qualities were nurtured during her years at Vanderbilt University, as a member of Gamma Phi Beta sorority, where she earned her Bachelor of Arts in Mathematics. She went on to receive her Masters of Arts in Mathematics at Middle Tennessee State University and ultimately, a degree from the American Bankers Association Stonier Graduate School of Banking, Rutgers University.

In her working years, Linda achieved great success in the vocations of a high school teacher at Shelbyville Central High School, an educator at Middle Tennessee State University, an executive banker at People's National Bank in Shelbyville and a sales consultant for Design-Build Concepts, a major financial architectural firm out of Atlanta, Georgia. Through these experiences, Linda's success was superseded only by the dear friendships she created along the way, connections she maintained across the years. No matter whether you had known her from birth, grade school, high school, college, or in the business world and after, each person she loved truly knew the depth of love and respect she had for them - she thought of each and every one of them as extended family and treated them as such.

Linda is survived by her daughters, EnaShea Bramblett Kohler (Chris) and Alexandra Bramblett Burlason (Bruce); four adored grandchildren, Isabelle, Max, Gus and Liam; first cousins, Larry Lewis, Dan and Dwayne Hibdon, many beloved cousins; and former husband, John McKelvey Bramblett. She is preceded in death by her husband, Lt. Col. James Rawley Austin; her father, James Kenneth Williamson and mother, Ena Irene Yearwood Williamson.

A private family service will be held in her honor in spring 2021. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Horse Mountain Church of Christ, 1320 Horse Mountain Road, Shelbyville, TN 37160 c/o Mark Pierce, Wounded Warrior Project, support.woundedwarriorproject.org or The National Commodore Club, Vanderbilt University, McGugin Center, 2601 Jess Neely Drive, Nashville, TN 37212 c/o Coach Tim Corbin (baseball).

Feldhaus Memorial Chapel is assisting the family with the arrangements.

“ Dear Ena Shea and Alexandra,
I was so sorry to hear about you losing your mom. I am attaching a photo of she and her dad back in 1989 that my mom, Helen Snell took. I always loved this photo! Your mom and I were 2nd cousins but unfortunately didn't grow up seeing each other very often. Your grandmother, Aunt Ena Irene, was my name sake! My husband and I have recently moved to middle TN and were looking so forward to getting to know Linda Faye again! I am so sorry that won't happen. What a smart, fun loving person she was and I know you will miss her. I found a sweet note she wrote to me in April 2006 when my mom passed away. She gave me each of your addresses even (hopefully one of you got my card) as I don't even know if the addresses are most recent.
I had no idea that she had been a member at Horse Mountain Church of Christ! My aunt on my mothers side lived right behind the church I and walked by there so many times. Your mom will be be sorely missed by so many I hope someday we can meet in person and you can share wonderful stories about her!
In Sympathy, Ena Carol (Snell) Selby

“ I am so sorry to hear of Linda's passing. I mowed her yard for many years both on Naron Rd. And Union St. such a dear sweet person! Always got a Christmas card every year from her. 'Mr. Austin' was a great guy and Linda sure took good care of him when he started to decline in health. I am truly so sorry for your loss! Pat Naron

“ Some of my fondest memories are living in Shelbyville and literally being neighbors with Linda and her family. We all had lunch (along with the Naron's) every Sunday. Our family friendship are, and will be, forever cherished. Brett Fulford
