“ He was a great dad and he was a great husband and I have been with him thru the worst thing that could happen to the greatest turn around in his lifetime achievement of the way he was a Gsr in the AA group of recovery in the alcoholic days of his life to the fullest extent of the best friend in my life and my everything else in life but I'm still sad and now his name will be stronger than before;we truly believe that he's in a better place and wouldn't come back in this if he could but I'm going to miss him already have been a month since he's been gone from my life and now I have to go on with my life and my family is my life and I hope that I'll be able to do that for the way life is changing my way of thinking about memories that will continue everyday life,LIZ Tipton on Wed 11/20/19
